JUSTICE IN PRACTICE

We are pleased to announce the organization of a national workshop dedicated to advancing dialogue and collaboration on medical responsibility and patient safety. This important event will bring together key stakeholders-legislators, members of the judiciary, physicians, healthcare professionals, professional orders, patient advocates, insurers, legal experts, mediators, public health authorities, and academic institutions.

The workshop will provide a platform for shared reflection and coordinated action, aiming to reinforce trust, transparency, and responsibility within the healthcare system. Discussions will focus on strengthening medical investigation processes, fostering a culture of accountability, and supporting educational and preventive initiatives-including the introduction of medical ethics and legal principles in healthcare training.

Together, we aspire to build a sustainable, fair, and patient-centered approach to medical responsibility.
